Editorial Review

Review

“From minimalist and modern to cozy and colorful, these homes are a testament to the transformative power of design.” (ArchitecturalDigest.com)

“Going far beyond the typical built-in cabinetry and lofted beds, Mola offers dozens of tips about how to design a tiny home in a way that’s creative rather than claustrophobic.” (Yahoo! Homes)

“In addition to offering plenty of small-space eye candy, the book’s new builds and renovations—including urban apartments, rural houses, converted garages, stables, garden sheds, and more—are also united in their use of space-saving strategies that require confidence and commitment to get right. (Slate)

“...its 504 pages are jam-packed with simple and beautiful ideas for designing small spaces.” (Architects + Artisans)

“...there are plenty of suggestions here about how to make any small space in the home appear commodious.” (Library Journal)

From the Back Cover

Featuring interiors that exemplify the beauty and simplicity of small-space design, 150 Best Mini Interior Ideas is the latest volume in the bestselling 150 Best series.

Composed of stunning photographs, floor plans, and insightful text, this book will help you discover how architects and designers from around the world work within a confined square footage to create innovative living spaces. 150 Best Mini Interior Ideas profiles a diverse range of homes, from rural and urban constructions to town houses and renovations. It reveals how to utilize walls, floors, and furniture to make a small room appear large, and it shares other methods and decorating tricks to inspire homeowners and designers.

Secret storage systems, convertible furniture, and mindfulness of materials combine to create unique and flexible homes. This extensive collection celebrates functional, striking design meant to maximize the most minimal of spaces.
