Editorial Review

From Library Journal

Filled with humor, wit, and a plethora of delightful canine matchmakers, this eclectic quartet of Christmas novellas will appeal especially to those with a soft spot for dogs. Four dogs and a ghost reunite two lovers in Victoria Alexander's "Shakespeare and the Three Kings." Nature takes a hand in Annie Kimberlin's upbeat contemporary Away in a Shelter, when a blizzard helps two opposites find love amid the animals' Christmas Eve; while the heroine's wish for a simpler life in Miriam Raftory's Mr. Wright's Christmas Angel sends her back to 19th-century Alaska and into the arms of "Mr. Right." A diverse collection of warm and charming holiday stories?with a bit of a twist. [Note: These last two stories can be considered within the Americana tradition.]
