Wayne Dyer presents complex concepts in ways the average person can grasp. In these two programs he explores attitudes and behaviors we often believe we can't control. The author explains the benefits of taking responsibility instead of laying blame, seeing problems as opportunities, identifying and breaking out of the comfort zone, and becoming a fully functioning "NEZ" (no erroneous zones) person. Dyer's assertions are well illustrated with metaphors, examples and practical advice on eating, sleeping and relationships. This program combines segments of live seminars with studio recordings to clarify the subject matter. Consistently compelling, Dyer possesses that rare combination of serenity and passion that turns listeners into believers. D.M.G. (c)AudioFile, Portland, Maine
