Gender Diversity in Indonesia: Sexuality, Islam and Queer Selves (ASAA Women in Asia Series) By Sharyn Graham Davies

Indonesia provides particularly interesting examples of gender diversity. Same-sex relations, transvestism and cross-gender behaviour have long been noted amongst a wide range of Indonesian peoples. This book explores the nature of gender diversity in Indonesia, and with the world's largest Muslim population, it examines Islam in this context. Based on extensive ethnographic research, it discusses in particular calalai – female-born individuals who identify as neither woman nor man; calabai – male-born individuals who also identify as neither man nor woman; and bissu – an order of shamans who embody female and male elements. The book examines the lives and roles of these variously gendered subjectivities in everyday life, including in low-status and high-status ritual such as wedding ceremonies, fashion parades, cultural festivals, Islamic recitations and shamanistic rituals. The book analyses the place of such subjectivities in relation to theories of gender, gender diversity and sexuality.

Editorial Review

Review

"[A] comprehensive study of gender diversity in Indonesia... the book is an excellent, ethnographically thick and deep description of structures, discourses, negotiations and experiences of gender in Bugis South Sulawesi. The author's careful consideration of a whole range of aspects, frames and spaces relating to gender shows the complexity of the subject positions and the creativity of the people who live those positions... Graham Davies sets out to 'contribute to knowledge about gender' and she certainly succeeds." - Dr. Karin Klenke, Department of Social and Cultural Anthropology, Georg-August University, Germany

"In this rich exploration of sexuality, gender, and queer subject positioning among the Bugis of South Sulawesi, Indonesia, Sharyn Graham Davies...offers a fascinating discussion of the intersections of Islamic thought and practice with Bugis gender diversity... [the book] would be an excellent addition to upper-level undergraduate and graduate classrooms in gender and sexuality studies."

- Leslie Dwyer, American Anthropologist

As a college student exactly feel bored in order to reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library or even make summary for some book, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's soul or real their interest. They just do what the instructor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to there but nothing reading critically. Any students feel that reading through is not important, boring and can't see colorful images on there. Yeah, it is to become complicated. Book is very important for you. As we know that on this era, many ways to get whatever you want. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Gender Diversity in Indonesia: Sexuality, Islam and Queer Selves (ASAA Women in Asia Series) can make you sense more interested to read.
