Editorial Review

Review

Love and relationships can cloud our vision and our thinking. When we try and understand them, we often come unstuck and find we lose direction. Nikki Mackay can help you find your way again with her new book, Tarot for Understanding Love and Relationships. It's a wonderfully gentle read that directs you through exploring your relationships, past and present, with tarot. If you're new to tarot, have no fear as Nikki expertly guides you through the cards, seen through the eyes of love, making them relevant and appropriate to your situation helping you clear that fog and bring a new clarity and understanding to your relationships. Complementary exercises and techniques help make this a holistic and complete experience that centres on you. (Catherine Chapman, www.tarotelements.com) A very informative book on Tarot, although the title suggests its content is using tarot for guidance in love and relationships, this book offers so much more, including great spreads and using the Tarot for meditation and magical work amongst other interesting themes. Beginners and advanced readers alike will learn a lot from this book. (Kim Arnold, Founder of the UK Tarot Conference www.tarotconference.co.uk)
