New to the Eleventh Edition

- Full coverage of the 2008 election has been added to the text. Chapter 4 includes updated voter turnout rates from the 2008 election and changes the turnout basis from voting age population to voting eligible population, Chapter 6 looks at the demographic trends that may well bring the Democratic Party back into power sometime between now and 2020, and Chapter 7 discusses the Texas Two-Step and its role in the 2008 Democratic presidential nomination contest between Hillary Clinton and Barack Obama.
- “Around the Nation” features have been updated throughout the text to reflect current hot topics in state politics across the nation, including the Massachusetts healthcare program as an example of a state serving as a “laboratory of democracy”; cash-for-grades student incentive program in Washington, DC.; Campaign Finance Reform in Arizona; Party Politics in Kansas; healthcare reform in San Francisco; and toll road privatization in Indiana.
- New material on social issues has been incorporated throughout the text. Chapter 1 discusses how religion impacts public policy in Texas; Chapter 14 examines sobriety checkpoints as a way to reduce drunk driving; and updated data on death penalty verdicts and executions looks at the national trends and compares them to the Texas criminal justice system.
- The issue of expanding legalized gambling to raise revenue is explored in Chapter 2 to analyze the role of the Texas Constitution in the policymaking process, and the potential adoption of a constitutional amendment. Chapter 10 looks at the Texas Supreme Court decision in the case of Cull v. Perry Homes.
- A new Chapter 3 opener discusses Governor Rick Perry’s rejection of federal stimulus money earmarked to shore up the state’s unemployment insurance fund.
- Legislative politics and processes are analyzed in Chapter 8 by examining the fate of environmentally friendly legislation in the 81st session of the Texas legislature.
- Chapter 9 discusses insurance regulation in the Lone Star State, focusing on the role of the TDI. The section on the SBOE discusses the recent debate over the state’s high school science curriculum.
- The state budget crisis that Texas will soon be facing is discussed in Chapter 13.
