Editorial Review

About the Author

Dublin-born Londoner David Brazil arrived in Singapore during August 1988 - to discover that this was an extremely auspicious month (8-88) and that he was just days ahead of the handphone's arrival. He accepted that since then, the mobile phone had hugely outpaced his own impact on Singapore but he had happily spent his years here on journalism, books, photographing, part-time modelling and acting, all sorts. His local enthusiasms included cats, cooking, clubbing, cycling and some things not beginning with the letter 'c'...
